Salisbury Police Officers Go “Up on the Rooftop” at Krispy Kreme
Officers Volunteer Weekend Time to Solicit Toys for Tots Donations

Salisbury, NC_December 8, 2008 – The Salisbury Police Department announced today that off-duty Salisbury police officers will spend the weekend of Friday, December 12 through Sunday, December 14 on the roof of Krispy Kreme Doughnuts, 1428 W. Innes Street. Officers will brave the winter elements to solicit donations for the Toys for Tots Program, sponsored nationally by the Marine Corps Reserve. Citizens wishing to donate to Toys for Tots are asked to bring new unwrapped toys or monetary donations to the Salisbury Police Department lobby, 130 E. Liberty Street, or to the Krispy Kreme Doughnuts location, during normal business hours.

Citizens may make checks payable to the Toys for Tots Foundation. All monetary donations, including cash, checks and gift cards, will be turned over to the Toys for Tots program for additional toy purchases. Donations for boys and girls, infant to fifteen years, will be collected with 100% of all donations supporting children within the Rowan County area.

Officers will commence their vigil at approximately 6 am on Friday, December 12 and remain “up on the rooftop” until Sunday December 14 at approximately 6 pm. Krispy Kreme will remain open 24 hours on both Friday and Saturday. Citizens can look for the “hot light” to stay on all night and will receive free doughnut coupons as they stop by to make a donation to Toys for Tots. Santa Claus will offer periodic site visits throughout the weekend to provide support for volunteers and to encourage citizen donations.

For more information, citizens are asked to contact Master Police Officer Mark Shue at 704-638-5333.
